Training & Examination Pattern for DM Endocrinology & M.Ch. (Paediatric Surgery)

(As per guidelines of NMC)

Doctor of Medicine (D.M.)/Master of Chirurgie (M.Ch.) - The training programme shall be on the same pattern as for M.D./M.S. in clinical disciplines; practical training including advanced diagnostic, therapeutic and laboratory techniques, relevant to the subject of specialization. For M.Ch. candidates, there shall be participation in surgical operations.

Period of training for D.M./M.Ch. Course shall be three years viz. six academic terms including examination period.

1. DM Endocrinology

The examinations shall be organized on the basis of 'Grading' or 'Marking system' to evaluate and to certify postgraduate student's level of knowledge, skill and competence at the end of the training.

Obtaining a minimum of 50% marks in 'Theory' as well as 'Practical' separately shall be mandatory for passing examination as a whole.

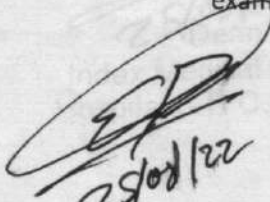

There will be four theory papers of 100 marks each, as below:

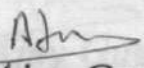

- Paper I: Basic sciences relevant to the discipline of endocrinology and metabolism
- Paper II: Clinical aspects and diagnosis of endocrinology and metabolism disorders
- Paper III: Therapeutic aspects of endocrinology and Metabolism and Laboratory technology Paper
- Paper IV: Recent Advances in Endocrinology & Metabolism

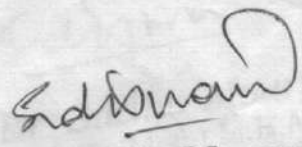

Each Paper shall be of 3 hours duration

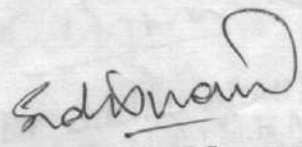

2. Clinical / Practical and Oral/viva voce Examination (Total marks-400):

- There would be four examiners for clinical examination. These would comprise of two internal and two external examiners.
- The maximum number of candidates to be examined in clinical/Practical and viva on any day shall not exceed 3 for D.M./M.Ch. examinations.
- Clinical examination will be conducted over 2 days:
 - Day 1: Two long cases (one of the long cases must be diabetes); 4 short cases; 4 spotters covering different aspects of Endocrinology
 - Day 2: Knowledge of laboratory techniques and their evaluation in clinical situation. Clinical slides, imaging, emergencies, and viva voce.
- The logbook of procedures and 15 interventions shall also be assessed in the practical examination. The research paper shall be presented.

3. M.Ch (Paediatric Surgery)

The M.Ch. examination shall be in two parts:

1. Theory: There shall be four theory papers (100 marks each) as follows:
 - a. Paper I: Basic Sciences in Pediatric Surgery, Trauma, Transplantation
 - b. Paper II: Regional Pediatric Surgery (Head and Neck, Thorax), Pediatric Oncosurgery
 - c. Paper III: Regional Pediatric Surgery (Abdomen, Genitourinary)
 - d. Paper IV: Recent advances in Pediatric surgery

Each Paper shall be of 3 hours duration

The theory examination shall be held in advance before the clinical and practical examination, so that the answer books can be assessed and evaluated before the commencement of the clinical/practical/oral examination.

The post graduate students for M.Ch in Pediatric surgery will be examined also in surgical procedures.

2. Practical (Total marks-400): The practical examination should consist of the following and should be spread over two days, if the number of candidates appearing is more than one:

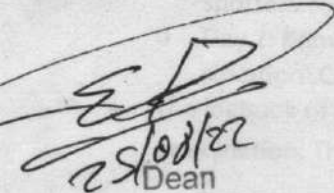

- a. Four cases from various sections of Pediatric surgery/subspecialities: History taking, physical examination, interpretation of clinical findings, differential diagnosis, investigations, prognosis and management.

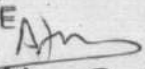

- b. Ward rounds comprising of discussion of practical problems in the management of pediatric patients undergoing surgery.

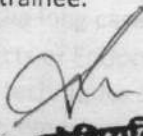

- c. Viva-voce examination –

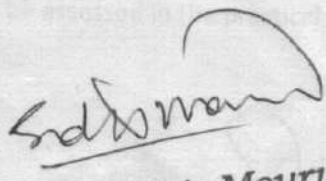

- Instruments and operative procedures
- Radiology and imaging
- Surgical Pathology
- Thesis and logbook evaluation

Other recommendations: Systematic and periodic formative assessment should be done every 6 months and feedback should be given to trainee.
